IFFP Volunteer Commitment

Part of IFFP membership includes giving your time as a volunteer. Our dues structure is low because we count on volunteers. Each adult member should expect to find a way to volunteer. We are providing two copies of this form so that each adult can volunteer.

Your name and email: _____

Sunday Morning Volunteer Positions: The HEART of IFFP without which Sunday morning cannot occur! These are the most important roles we have. For each task, we intend you to alternate among 3 families--the more people who sign up, the easier these jobs are.

- Greeting Table: Greet & welcome visitors, as well as members. Arrive at 9:45 to set up the tables with name tags, welcome packets, etc. Stay 10 minutes after Sunday School to put supplies away.
- Sunday Refreshments Table Set Up/Clean Up: Arrive by 9:45 to set up tables with tablecloths, napkins, cups, etc. for snack. Clean up tables at 12:00pm. Store supplies.
- Coffee Mavens: Brew, transport, set up and then store coffee for Sunday Gatherings.
- Store, Wash and Bring the Coffee Mugs: Bring the ceramic coffee mugs every week, take them home after Gathering, wash them, and bring them again.
- Storage helpers: New rules at Einstein mean we cannot store materials on-site. Help move supplies from the storage unit nearby and come up with creative solutions for storage.

Join a Team: Commit to work on particular events during the year.

- Miranda's Team! Help Miranda to coordinate set-up and clean-up for special events.
- Julia's/Rain's Team! Help Julia and Rain with set-up and other needs for gathering and services such as Easter.
- Data Entry Team: May do this from your home.

Help to coordinate a single event:

- High Holidays: Assist with the logistics for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur Services at Silver Spring Unitarian Universalist Church.
- Purim auction: Encourage and coordinate donations for our fundraiser.
- Easter Pancake/Matzo Brei breakfast
- Easter Egg Hunt
- Women's Retreat
- Men's Spring Night Out Group: (such as hike, movie & discussion, ballgame, retreat, etc.)

Do you have a passion? These are activities where IFFP members can make a difference. Take this project and run with it!

- Public Relations Team: *New focus for this group. Work with Miranda. Interview members, write or edit draft blogs about how IFFP members address a variety of issues, like December Delights, rites of passage. Opportunities for social media as well. One or two meetings per year with work and email in between.
  - Board of Directors, members or committees. Are you interested in how IFFP runs? Have experience in non-profit management, fundraising, finances, or just a love and commitment for our organization? We'd be happy to talk with you about leadership opportunities. What are you interested in helping with?
- New members welcoming and support
  - Member retention
  - Tikkun Olam groups coordination
  - Comfort team (food and support for families in need)

Sunday School Assistance:

- Hall Helpers: Monitor the hallways during Sunday school, making sure the children are safe if they leave their classrooms. Sign-up ahead for dates that work for your schedule.
- Substitute Teachers for Sunday School classes: Substituting when regular teachers cannot be present. You don't need to be available every Sunday. You agree to the dates you can sub. 1.5 hours each time you sub.
Preferred age range/class: _____
- Beth/Cindy's Team: Agree to be asked if you can help with specific tasks on specific dates.
- K-6th Grade Service Project: Select and coordinate project.
- Coordinate Teacher Appreciation: Work with Director of Religious Education to plan and execute teacher appreciation.
- Purim Booth: Coordinate a Purim booth for a class, some booths already in IFFP storage.
- Classroom social event coordinators: Coordinate one social event for one class. Can be as simple as sending out a notice for a class picnic right after Sunday School.
- Safety Team: Coordinate and help lead safety drills.
- I'm teaching!
